Jodie McGill

Jodie was born and raised in Omaha, Nebraska. She graduated from the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO) with a B.S. in Business in 2002. While at UNO, Jodie was the captain of the Swimming & Diving Team, the 2002 Outstanding Student Scholar Athlete of the Year, and president of the Student Athletic Advisory Board. Jodie earned her J.D. Degree from Creighton University School of Law in 2005. Jodie received the 2004-2005 Outstanding Student Award from the Robert M. Spire American Inn of Court and was a CALI award winner while in law school. Soon after graduating from Creighton, Jodie joined the firm of Katskee, Henatsch & Suing, where she worked for more than five successful years.

In 2011, Jodie founded McGill Law, P.C., L.L.O. Since then, Jodie has continued to diligently represent numerous clients in family law, adoption, collaborative law, collections, civil litigation and business related cases. Jodie has spent many hours in the courtroom representing clients in Omaha and surrounding areas. Jodie is an experienced trial and appellate attorney.

Jodie is a trained family law mediator and collaborative professional. She is licensed in Nebraska and Iowa.

Jodie has been a presenter numerous times at Creighton University School of law on civil litigation; family law, collaborative law and starting a solo practice. She has also presented at Nebraska College of Law, Metro Community College, Omaha Bar Association meetings and Nebraska State Bar Association meetings.

Jodie is active in a number of professional organizations including the Nebraska Academy of Collaborative Professionals, International Academy of Collaborative Professionals, Omaha Bar Association, Nebraska Bar Association, The Iowa Bar Association, The Women and Law Section of the Nebraska Bar Association, Omaha Law League, Inns of Court, and the Nebraska Women's Bar Association. Jodie is the Past President of the Omaha Law League and a past board member of the Nebraska Women's Bar Association and Women's Fund Circles. She currently serves as a Friend of Planned Parenthood of the Heartland and is the current chair of the Nebraska Academy of Collaborative Professionals Steering Committee. Jodie is a graduate of the 2014-2015 Nebraska State Bar Leadership Academy and has been recognized as a Nebraska State Bar Foundation Fellow.

When not practicing law, Jodie spends time with her husband and three active children.
