

In re Interest of K.W.

Case Number

A-16-0684

Call Date

February 15, 2017

Case Time

1:00 PM

Case Audio

Download Audio

Case Summary

A-16-0684, Mental Health Board of the Fourth Judicial District v. K.W. (Appellant)

Douglas County, District Court Judge Horacio J. Wheelock

Attorney for Appellant: Thomas C. Riley, Ryan T. Locke (Public Defender's Office)

Attorney for Appellee: Eric W. Wells (County Attorney's Office)

Civil Action: Sexual Offender Commitment Act

Action Taken by Trial Court: The Board of Mental Health found K.W. to be a dangerous sex offender and further found that inpatient treatment was the least restrictive alternative available. The district court affirmed the Board's decision.

Assignments of Error on Appeal: K.W. argues that the Board and district court erred in determining he was a dangerous sex offender and that inpatient treatment was the least restrictive alternative.

Case Location

Lincoln

Panel Text

Riedmann, Bishop, and Arterburn, Judges
