Case Summary

A-14-0883, In re Interest of Alex F. and Tony F., children under 18 years of age. State of Nebraska v. Floyd F. (Appellant) v. Shelly F., Appellee-Cross Appellant

Madison County, County Court Judge Ross A. Stoffer

Attorney for Appellant: Ryan J. Stover (Stratton, DeLay, Doele, Carlson & Buettner, P.C., L.L.O.)

Attorney for Appellee (State of Nebraska): Gail E. Collins (Madison County Attorney's Office)

Attorney for Appellee (Guardian ad Litem) Brad Easland

Attorney for Appellee-Cross Appellant: Mark D. Albin (Albin Law Office)

Juvenile Action: Placement of adjudicated juvenile

Action Taken by Trial Court: The county court, sitting as a juvenile court, disapproved of the case plan offered by the Department of Health and Human Services and ordered a change in the juvenile's placement.

Assignments of Error on Appeal: On appeal, Floyd assigns that the juvenile court erred in disapproving the case plan court report and ordering that Tony be removed from the home.

On cross-appeal, Shelly assigns that the juvenile court erred in disapproving the case plan court report and ordering that Tony be removed from the home.
