Case Summary

S-14-0887 State v. William C. Floyd, Jr. (Appellant)

Douglas County, Judge Thomas Otepka

Attorneys: Pro Se Appellant --- George R. Love (Attorney General's Office)

Civil: In forma pauperis

Proceedings below: The district court found the request for payment of costs did not differentiate from costs for appellate briefs and other costs associated with Floyd's appeals and denied Floyd's motion for reimbursement of costs for his previous appeals.

Issues: The district court erred in denying reimbursement for postage and photocopy of expenses created in the appeal/challenge of a criminal conviction.
