Case SummaryA-17-409, Myrna F. Williams v. Kenneth J. Williams (Appellant)

Hayes County, District Court Judge David W. Urbom

Attorney for Appellant: James C. Bocott (Law Office of James C. Bocott, PC, LLO)

Attorney for Appellee: Timothy Brouillette (Brouillette, Dugan and Troshynski, PC, LLO) & Audrey A. Bellew (Senior Certified Law Student)

Civil Action: Alimony

Action Taken by Trial Court: The district court awarded the appellee $1,500 per month in alimony for 96 months.

Assignments of Error on Appeal: The appellant contends that the district court erred (1) in awarding the appellee permanent alimony when she failed to request it in her complaint and (2) if the issue of permanent alimony was properly before the district court, the court abused its discretion in the amount and duration of the alimony awarded to the appellee.
