Case SummaryA-17-1116, Harlan D. Burgardt (Appellee and Cross-Appellant v. Shirley L. Burgardt (Appellant and Cross-Appellee)

Adams County, District Court Judge Terri S. Harder

Attorney for Appellant: Richard L. Alexander (Richard Alexander Law Office)

Attorney for Appellee: Nicholas D. Valle (Langvardt, Valle & James, P.C., L.L.O.)

Civil Action: Dissolution of Marriage.

Action Taken by Trial Court: The district court dissolved the parties' marriage; divided the marital estate; and awarded Appellant alimony.

Assignments of Error on Appeal: On appeal, Appellant alleges that the district court erred in (1) providing Appellee a credit for a premarital 401(k) plan; (2) awarding Appellee a credit for money he inherited and then put toward the purchase of the marital residence; and (3) awarding her only $200 per month in alimony. On cross-appeal, Appellee alleges that the district court erred in (1) failing to allocate between the parties the tax liability created by the sale of the farms and equipment and (2) awarding Appellant any alimony.
