

State ex rel. Counsel for Discipline v. Jorgenson

Case Number

S-17-1028

Case Audio

Download Audio

Call Date

January 10, 2019

Case Location

Lincoln

Case Summary

S-17-1028 State of Nebraska ex rel. Counsel for Discipline of the Nebraska Supreme Court v. Jeremy C. Jorgenson (Respondent)

Original Action

Attorneys: Julie L. Agena (Assistant Counsel for Discipline) (Relator) --- no brief filed by any Respondent/case in default

Civil: Attorney Discipline Matter

Proceedings below: Respondent admitted most of the allegations in his answer to the formal charges. Relator withdrew what was not admitted and filed amended charges. Relator filed a motion for judgment of the pleadings, which the Court granted as to the facts. A referee was appointed to conduct a hearing for the determination of appropriate discipline. The referee filed a report and recommendation that Respondent be disbarred.

Issues: There are no assignments of error claimed by either the Relator or the Respondent.
