Case Summary

S-18-1181 State v. Randy R. Harms, Jr. (Appellant)

Seward County District Court, Judge James C. Stecker

Attorneys: Jordan Osborne (Office of the Attorney General, for Appellee) ---Nicole J. Tegtmeier (Seward County Public Defender's Office, for Appellant)

Criminal: Plea; Attempted possession of burglar's tools; Excessive sentence

Proceedings below: Appellant was convicted based on his plea and sentenced to one year in jail with credit for 23 days served.

Issues: Whether the district court 1) erred in failing to grant Appellant credit for all the time he was incarcerated prior to sentencing, and 2) abused its discretion by imposing an excessive sentence.
