The Mediation Center

The Mediation Center fills a unique and important niche in the Lincoln/Lancaster community. With a professional staff possessing expertise in the areas of conflict resolution, consensus building, and collaborative strategies, along with the commitment of more than 50 extensively trained, highly skilled mediators, the Center serves thousands of individuals each year. The Mediation Center is proud of the quality and breadth of our programming and committed to increasing people's understanding of mediation as a useful and effective dispute resolution process so they might reach out for services more readily.
