Case Summary

S-19-0638 State v. Brady J. Wilson (Appellant)

Hamilton County District Court, Judge Rachel A. Daugherty

Attorneys: Siobhan Duffy (Office of the Attorney General, for Appellee) --- Mark Porto (Porto Law Office, for Appellant)

Criminal: Plea; First degree sexual assault (Class II felony); attempted visual depiction of sexually explicit conduct related to possession (Class IIIA felony)

Proceedings below: Pursuant to a plea agreement, Appellant entered a plea of no contest to both charges. He was sentenced 6-10 years in prison for sexual assault and 1-3 years in prison for attempt. The sentences were ordered to be served concurrently. He was ordered to lifetime registration under SORA as the court found the offense an aggravated offense.

Issues: Appellant argues it was error to find the offense was an aggravated offense under 29-4001.01 and was therefore subject to lifetime registration under SORA.
