Case Summary

A-19-0472, Timothy Ray Grothen (appellant) v. Martha Sue Grothen

Adams County, District Judge Stephen R. Illingworth

Attorney for Appellant: Richard L. Alexander (Richard Alexander Law Office)

Attorney for Appellee: Robert J. Parker, Jr. (Seiler & Parker, P.C., L.L.O.)

Civil Action: alimony modification

Action Taken by Trial Court: The district court denied Timothy's application to modify his alimony obligation.

Assignments of Error on Appeal: Timothy assigns that the district court abused its discretion in (1) failing to modify his alimony obligation; (2) determining that his failure to satisfy his existing alimony obligation was willful, and thus, the doctrine of unclean hands precluded him from obtaining a modification of alimony; and (3) ordering him to pay attorney fees to Martha.
