Wendy Hind

Wendy Hind, JD/PhD was the Director of the Nebraska Office of Dispute Resolution from 2000-2005. Under her leadership, the Uniform Mediation Act was passed by the Nebraska Legislature. Also under her leadership, a .75 cent court filing fee was passed ensuring the funding of community mediation for the state of Nebraska. Prior to leaving her position at ODR Dr. Hind began working with the Nebraska Supreme Court and the Mediation Centers in the drafting of the Parenting Act. Hind has over 20 experience as a skilled mediator and negotiator. She has served on The Mediation Center Board and taught mediation/negotiations at the university level.

Hind has been trained and coached in basic, advanced, family, family group conferencing, special education, juvenile, restorative justice mediation, and facilitation. She has also completed the Harvard summer certificate program on negotiation.
