Case Summary

A-19-1069, Signal 88, LLC (Appellant) v. Lyconic, LLC

Douglas County, District Court Judge Marlon Polk

Attorney for Appellant: Michael T. Eversden, Brian McKernan (McGrath, North, Mullin & Kratz, PC LLO)

Attorney for Appellee: Michael S. Degan (Kutak Rock, LLP)

Civil Action: Contract; Arbitration

Action Taken by Trial Court: After the appellee was granted partial summary judgment on its contract claims, the parties engaged in arbitration. The arbitration agreement was entered by the district court.

Assignments of Error on Appeal: The appellant's ten assignments of error relate to the appellant's claim that, when the district court entered the award confirming the arbitration award, the court acted outside its authority by modifying the arbitration award to impose an additional liability on the appellant which had not been raised by the appellee during arbitration, was not included in the arbitration order, and had not been included in the arbitration order.
