

§ 4-213. Alimony.

These guidelines intend that spousal support be determined from income available to the parties after child support has been established.
