

§ 6-612. Orders and warrants.

Fax transmission may be used for the issuance of orders or warrants, including, but not limited to:

- (A) an arrest or search warrant;
- (B) release or detention of a defendant in custody for a criminal proceeding;
- (C) an order or warrant for placing a juvenile in custody or for release or detention of a person subject to the Nebraska Juvenile Code;
- (D) a temporary restraining order or protection order; and
- (E) an order in a domestic relations case.

For all procedural and statutory purposes, a faxed document shall have the same force and effect as the original document issued by a court.
