

§ 6-1202. General.

For purposes of §§ 6-1201 through 6-1210, problem-solving courts are programs and services established within the district, county, or juvenile courts and shall include, but are not limited to, programs established pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 24-1302 and programs established for the treatment of problems related to issues such as substance abuse, mental health, and domestic violence. The purpose of the programs and services is to reduce recidivism by fostering a comprehensive and coordinated court response composed of early intervention, appropriate treatment, intensive supervision, and consistent judicial oversight.

Adopted January 24, 2007, effective March 1, 2007. Renumbered and codified as § 6-1202, effective July 18, 2008; § 6-1202 amended September 21, 2016; § 601202 amended February 14, 2019.
