

§ 6-1406. Withdrawal of counsel.

Upon timely application and good cause shown, counsel shall be permitted to withdraw from a matter in which there has been filed with the application an affidavit which recites that counsel has served a copy of the application upon the client and all parties and which further recites the client's current address.

Rule 6 amended November 1991. Renumbered and codified as § 6-1406, effective July 18, 2008.
