Appendix C. Judicial financial interest statement.

(A) General information.

The Code of Judicial Conduct as adopted by the Nebraska Supreme Court provides in part that:

A judge shall regularly file reports of compensation received for any extrajudicial activity for which the judge received compensation. A judge shall also regularly file reports of personal holdings and of gifts, bequests, favors, and loans received of such a nature that the judge's impartiality might reasonably be challenged.

All Nebraska judges are required to file this statement in the office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court at the address on the front of this form. The report must be filed no later than May 1 of each year. Except as otherwise provided by the rules of the Supreme Court or this form, all questions regarding filing shall be governed by the canons of the Nebraska Code of Judicial Conduct as adopted by the Supreme Court.

This statement must include all financial interests held at any time during the calendar year, and may not be limited to interests held at the end of the year.

(B) Definitions.

COMPENSATION

Any money or thing of value received, or to be received as a claim on future services, whether in the form of a fee, salary, expense, allowance, forbearance, forgiveness, interest, dividend, royalty, rent, capital gain, or any other form of recompense then constituting income under the Internal Revenue Code. The income must, however, be for services and does not include income, interest, or dividends received by reason of investment. Expense reimbursement exceeding actual cost is compensation.

GIFT

A payment, subscription, advance, forbearance, rendering or deposit of money, services, or anything of value, unless consideration of equal or greater value is given therefor. Gift shall not include a commercially reasonable loan made in the ordinary course of business, or a gift received from a member of the judge's immediate family or a relative or close personal friend whose appearance or interest in a case would in any event require disqualification.

MEMBER OF THE JUDGE'S FAMILY RESIDING IN THE JUDGE'S HOUSEHOLD
