Until further order of the Court, all persons incarcerated and being housed in facilities outside of Cheyenne County shall be made available for court proceedings by telephone, WebEx or other remote connection technologies as may be available. This shall include hearings such as status hearings, scheduling conferences, discovery dispute hearings, bond reviews and entries of pleas. Such persons shall be transported for evidentiary hearings including preliminary hearings, hearings on motions to suppress and trials. The Court will consider sentencing such persons remotely, but will require consent from all parties and a written motion and order.

Should counsel seek to have such a person transported to the courthouse for a hearing, then counsel are to file a written motion and set the matter for hearing.
