(a) If you become emancipated, you will have some of the rights that come with adulthood. These rights include: handling your own affairs; living where you choose; entering into contracts; keeping and spending your money; making decisions regarding your own health care, medical care, dental care, and mental parent's consent; marrying without your parent's consent; applying for public assistance; suing someone or being sued; enrolling in school or college; and owning real property;

(b) Even if you are emancipated, you still must: stay in school as required by Nebraska law; be subject to child labor laws and work permit rules limiting the number of hours you can work; and be of legal age to consume alcohol; and

(c) When you become emancipated: you lose your right to have financial support for basic living expenses for food, clothing, and shelter, and health care paid for by your parents or guardian; your parents or guardian will no longer be legally or financially responsible if you injure someone; and being emancipated does not automatically make you eligible for public assistance or benefits.
