In accordance with the Neb. Rev. Stat. § 43-248.02(3) the above-named juvenile has the option to refuse the civil citation and be taken directly into temporary custody as provided in §§ 43-248 and 43-250. The option to refuse the civil citation may be exercised at any time prior to compliance with any services required by the Juvenile Assessment Center pursuant to § 43-248.02(5). The Juvenile Assessment Center may require the juvenile to participate in community service or other available services appropriate to the needs of the juvenile which may include family counseling, urinalysis monitoring, or substance abuse and mental health treatment services. If the juvenile fails to comply with any services required, or if the juvenile is issued a third or subsequent civil citation, a peace officer shall take the juvenile into temporary custody as provided in §§ 43-248 and 43-250.

I have been advised by the peace officer that I have the right to refuse this citation. I understand that if I choose to refuse this citation, I will be taken directly into temporary custody and the case will be referred for prosecution. I have been further advised that I may exercise this option any time prior to the completion of my Juvenile Assessment Center requirements.
