JUDICIAL BRANCH EDUCATION STANDARDS

STANDARDS FOR APPELLATE COURT JUDGES

Program Requirements

Appellate court judges (judges of the Nebraska Supreme Court and the Nebraska Court of Appeals) shall receive orientation, if applicable, and shall complete a minimum of ten (10) of approved course work each year, including ethics training.

Participant's Responsibilities

Appellate court judges should obtain and maintain professional competence through judicial education, spend such time as may reasonably be required to accomplish that purpose, support and assist other judges who may be attending judicial education programs as participants or as faculty, and, when reasonably able to do so, teach in judicial or legal education programs.

Curriculum Standards

a. Judicial education should address the areas of judicial competence, performance, case management, opinion writing, and administration.

b. Judicial education programs should impart knowledge; improve skills and techniques; and increase the understanding of judges regarding their responsibilities and their impact on the judicial process, the people involved, and society.

c. Judicial education programs should include:

1. Orientation before or within twelve months after taking office as outlined in Section 4.
2. Education for new judges on major legal subjects and practical skills needed by them and appropriate to the jurisdiction of the court in which they serve.
3. Periodic educational offerings for all judges on the substantive, procedural, and evidentiary laws, ethics, United States constitutional law, and applicable federal law.
4. Continuing education programs emphasizing new developments in the law and judicial administration, procedural and technological developments in the judicial system, opinion writing, and other programs to enhance the efficiency, abilities, and knowledge of each judge.
5. Advanced and specialized programs.
6. Online courses and distance programs as offered or approved by Judicial Branch Education

Orientation

Before assuming office, or within twelve months after appointment, JBE shall offer an orientation for the new judge using the experienced judges and comprising a comprehensive presentation of the procedures and functions of that court and procedural and substantive law applicable to it.

Continuing Education

Appellate judges may attend a combination of approved local, regional, or national programs; At least every three years, a judge should attend a program of regional or national scope. At least every second year, the chief judges of the Courts of Appeals, in satisfaction of these requirements, should attend the annual seminar or meeting of the Council of Chief Judges of Courts of Appeals.

Probation Administrative staff shall have a minimum of 24 hours of continuing education the first year, with eight (8) hours being specific to management topics. After the first year Probation Administrative staff shall have a minimum of eight (8) hours each year.

Standards for Probation Training Staff

Employees interested in becoming staff trainers must be recommended by their supervisor, and approved by Probation's Administrative Office prior to applying to Judicial Branch Education for acceptance into the Foundation Skills for Trainers 40-hour course. Upon successful completion of the course, the staff member will work with the Probation Education manager to begin training topics appropriate to the skill level of the staff member and approved by the Probation Education Manager.

Upon completion of the Foundation Skills course, trainers are expected to attend the Curriculum Design and Development 40-hour course during the next available offering of the course. This is also an application process.

When possible, the administrative office will provide additional training opportunities for staff trainers to improve their training skills.

STANDARDS FOR AOC AND AOP EMPLOYEES NOT OTHERWISE LISTED

Program Requirements

Employees of the Administrative Office of the Court and Probation, if not otherwise listed in these standards shall complete a minimum of eight (8) hours of approved course work each year.

Curriculum Standards

- a. Court-related education should address the areas of proficiency, competency, and performance.
- b. Court-related education and training programs should impart knowledge and understanding of the Nebraska judiciary and the legal process and increase the participant's understanding of the responsibilities of his or her position and its impact on the judicial process.
- c. Court-related education and training programs include:
 1. Orientation as soon as practicable after hiring or appointment.
 2. On-going education on an annual basis as offered by Judicial Branch Education.
 3. Online learning opportunities offered by Judicial Branch Education.

Orientation for all employees shall include, as a minimum:

1. A explanation of the specific responsibilities of the office involved and familiarization with court structure and procedures; and
2. An overview of:
 - a. the Nebraska judiciary, including the structure and function of each court;
 - b. current issues in the courts, including jury management, ethics and diversity issues;
 - c. expectations when dealing with the public as a representative of the courts; and
 - d. effective communication skills for employees.

On-going education for all employees shall be offered by Judicial Branch Education. Content shall be determined through consultation with department heads and the use of needs assessments completed by JBE in consultation with the AOC and the AOP training committee. On-going education shall be offered in a variety of formats including online learning.

Continuing Education – Payment

Judges and staff may attend a combination of approved local, regional, or national programs; JBE will use established criteria for determining whether financial assistance is available to pay expenses for individualized programs upon application for funding from the judge or staff member.

Compliance with JBE Requirements

JBE shall do an annual review of compliance with the JBE requirements. In the event of an employee's noncompliance, a corrective plan should be developed by JBE working in conjunction with the supervisor to cure the noncompliance. In the event of repeat instances of noncompliance by an employee disciplinary steps may be followed.

In the case of a judge's noncompliance with JBE requirements, a corrective plan shall be proposed by JBE with details to be worked out between the judge and JBE. In the case of repeat instances of a judge's noncompliance referral to the Judicial Qualifications Commission may occur.
