Motion Appe for Supplemental Briefing

This matter is before the court on appellee's motion for supplemental briefing regarding exhibits 7 and 8. Both exhibits were requested in appellant's praecipe for bill of exceptions but were not included in the bill of exceptions filed with this court. Appellant referenced 7 in her brief; appellee referenced its absence but cited its substance as derived from the workers' compensation court's order. Because appellant had requested the exhibits, this court ordered that a supplemental bill of exceptions be filed to include them. Appellee

State v. David J Tufts

ROD

Mot. of Appellee for Summary Affirmance
Appellee's motion for summary affirmance sustained. See Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-107(B)(2). Appellant's brief does not comply with the rules of appellate procedure. An alleged error must be both specifically assigned and specifically argued in the brief of the party asserting the error to be considered by an appellate court. State v. Yah, 317 Neb. 730, 11 N.W.3d 632 (2024). An argument that does little more than restate an assignment of error does not support the assignment, and an appellate court will not address it. State v. Blake, 310 Neb. 769, 969 N.W.2d 399 (2022). Appellant's brief does not specifically assign and argue errors asserted. Argument section merely restates assignments of error. See also Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-109(D)(1)(i).
