MLB Advanced Media v. Nebraska Department of Revenue

By order of the Court re Consolidation

The appeals in case Nos. A-25-144 and A-25-145 are hereby consolidated for briefing and oral argument. The parties are directed to fully address the jurisdiction issues with regard to the finality of the orders in question and the timeliness of the petitions filed with the district court. Where a lower court lacks subject matter jurisdiction to adjudicate the merits of a claim, issue, or question, an appellate court also lacks the power to determine the merits of the claim, issue, or question presented to the lower court. See e.g. Main St Properties v. City of Bellevue, 318 Neb. 116, 13 N.W.3d 911 (2024).

State v. Devin L Stortzum

ROD

Mot. of Appellee for Summary Affirmance
Appellee's motion for summary affirmance pursuant to Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-107(B)(2) is sustained; judgment affirmed. Appellant's sentence is within the statutory range and there was no abuse of discretion by the trial court. See State v. Price, 306 Neb. 38, 944 N.W.2d 279 (2020) (sentence not abuse of discretion when nothing indicates sentencing court considered inappropriate factors or ignored mitigating factors). Further, Appellant's claim that trial counsel was ineffective by failing to object to the portion of the presentence investigation report that included his pending charges of domestic violence against the same victim fails because it is permissible for the sentencing court to consider information that the defendant has been charged with but not yet tried for allegedly illegal acts committed after the offense for which the defendant is being sentenced. See, State v. Montoya, 305 Neb. 581, 941 N.W.2d 474 (2020); State v. Hunnel, 290 Neb. 1039, 863 N.W.2d 442 (2015) (sentencing authority can receive all information pertinent to the imposition of sentence). See, also, State v. Anderson, 305 Neb. 978, 943 N.W.2d 690 (2020) (as matter of law, counsel is not ineffective for failing to make meritless objection).
