Cochran*, 301 Neb. 426, 918 N.W.2d 868 (2018) (once protection order expires, parties no longer have cognizable interest in outcome of hearing regarding its extension; appellate court is not obligated to engage in analysis that is not necessary to adjudicate case and controversy before it).

State v. Jorge A Galindo

Motion Appt to Stay the Mandate

Appellant's application for stay of mandate filed December 9, 2023, is overruled for failure to comply with Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-114(A)(2). However, the Court concludes that some of the issues decided in the case present federal questions, and that in the interest of the orderly administration of justice, the mandate should be stayed pending any review by the United States Supreme Court. Accordingly, the Court, on its own motion, stays the mandate until further order of the Court. Any party seeking to have the stay lifted and the mandate issued shall file an appropriate motion setting forth the grounds therefor, including but not limited to the status or disposition of any petition for writ of certiorari.
