

Law Day Greeting 2020

- transcription

Chief Justice Heavican –

“Happy Law Day to all judges and judicial branch employees throughout the State of Nebraska.”

Corey R. Steel –

“It is certainly an interesting Law Day this year so I’d like to take a moment this Law Day to say thank you for keeping our courts and probation offices open, for keeping judicial branch services operational, and for remaining strong and professional through this epidemic.”

Deborah A. Minardi –

“We truly appreciate all that you are doing, in particular the creativity and flexibility in order to get the job done. You are an excellent model for all essential employees across the state.”

Jennifer Rasmussen –

“Technology has reshaped how we do business and provide services.”

Amy Prenda –

“But it is you who has made that technology work.”

Sheryl Connolly –

“Courts were never setup to operate with half our staff working from home.”

Robert Denton –

“Probation wasn’t designed to supervise and drug test clients remotely.”

Kelly Riley –

“Mediation was not planned with a thought to stay at arm’s length from the people served.”

Jennifer Verhein –

“Court interpreters were never intended to provide language access with their face covered by masks and their hands in rubber gloves.”

Janet Bancroft –

“2020 has certainly given us a Law Day to remember.”

Gene Cotter –

“While we are not, and may never be, business as usual - we recognize your critical involvement in keeping the courts system and judicial branch programming operational while keeping staff, citizens, and communities safe.”

Amy Prenda –

“For law day and for your work every day, thank you.”

From the group – “Thank you.”

Corey R. Steel –

“Thank you for all you do for the Judicial Branch”

Michael G. Heavican –

“Thank you and happy Law Day.”
