

On November 9, 2022, the Nebraska Supreme Court adopted the following rule amendments to Neb. Ct. R. §§ 1-103(C):

CHAPTER 1: ADMINISTRATIVE OPERATIONS

Article 1: Adoption, Amendment, and Repeal of Supreme Court Rules.

....

§ 1-103. Rules consideration.

....

(C) In the case of deferral pending a formal written comment period, notification of the pending rule amendments and solicitation of comment may be made on the Supreme Court's website and in any other publication(s) deemed advisable by the Supreme Court and notification of the pending rules requests and solicitations for comments may also be provided, as directed by the Court, to those identified as having a potential interest.

Any formal written comment period shall be for the period of time specified by the Court in such notification. Ordinarily, the comment period shall include at least 1 full calendar month and shall end on the first business day of a succeeding calendar month.
