

On June 6, 2018, the Nebraska Supreme Court adopted the following rule amendments to Neb. Ct. R. § 1-503, entitled “Required continuing judicial branch education”:

Article 5: Mandatory Continuing Judicial Education; Advisory Committee Provisions.

§ 1-503. Required continuing judicial branch education.

....

(C) A retired judge working ~~more than~~ 60 days or more (whether part or full days) per year in a judicial capacity shall be required to fulfill the judicial branch education requirements; lodging and mileage costs incurred for attendance in state at approved education shall be paid by judicial branch education. A retired judge working less than 60 days per year in a judicial capacity, or a retired judge who has not consented to be recalled for temporary judicial service but who has not engaged in the practice of law for at least 1 year, may attend judicial branch education programs; however, lodging and mileage shall be at the retired judge’s expense. A retired judge engaged in the practice of law shall not attend judicial branch education, unless invited as a speaker or as otherwise expressly approved by the advisory committee.

....