

On September 6, 2017, the Nebraska Supreme Court approved the following new Rules 6-11 (“Summary Judgment Procedure”), 6-12 (“Discovery”), and 6-13 (“Term of Court”) of the local district court rules of the Sixth Judicial District:

District 6

Rules of the District Court of the Sixth Judicial District

....

Rule 6-11. Summary Judgment Procedure

A. Moving Party: The moving party shall set forth in the brief in support of the motion for summary judgment, the basis for the motion, including the rule of procedure or statute under which the motion is filed, and a separate statement of each material fact as to which the moving party contends that there is no genuine issue to be tried and each shall identify the specific document or portion thereof for discovery response or deposition (by page and line) which it is claimed established the fact.

B. Opposing Party: The party opposing a motion for summary judgment shall set forth in its opposing brief a separate statement of each material fact to which it is contended there exists a genuine issue to be tried and as to each shall identify the specific document or discovery response or deposition testimony (by page and line) which it is claimed established the issue.

Rule 6-12. Discovery

To curtail undue delay in the administration of justice, all motions relating to compulsion of discovery shall include a written showing that after personal consultation between counsel for opposing parties and reasonable efforts to resolve differences, counsel are unable to reach an accord. As used herein, counsel includes parties who are acting pro se.

Rule 6-13. Term of Court

There shall be one term of court, commencing on January 1 and ending on December 31 of each calendar year. No order shall be required to either open or close any term of court.

....