If you want items in your Parenting Plan besides those in this sample Parenting Plan, you can add them to your Parenting Plan. Likewise, if you do not want some items in your Parenting Plan that are in this sample Plan, you can take them out of your Parenting Plan. For example, you may want to add other holidays, take out particular holidays, change time periods, change the method of pick up and return times for parenting time, change the length of time for summer parenting time, etc. Also, if you observe holidays that are not included in this sample Plan, you can add language to your Plan about those holidays. Remember, this is your Parenting Plan and it should meet your individual needs.

The parenting plan provides a legal “fall back” plan for parents to use if there is a need. Parents can alter this plan informally if all are in agreement. However, if there is a disagreement, the provisions in this plan control the parenting time. Mother and Father can temporarily change the terms of this Plan as long as they both agree to it. This Plan may be changed by mutual, written agreement of the parents. Mother and Father understand that any permanent changes must be approved by the Court to be binding and enforceable.

Please remember, your parenting plan will be reviewed by the judge and will need to be court ordered before it takes legal effect.
