Gianunzio Appointed Clerk Of Nebraska Workers' Compensation Court

The Nebraska Workers' Compensation Court recently announced the appointment of Liz Gianunzio to Clerk of the Court.

Gianunzio began her career with the court as an assistant clerk in 2007. She was promoted to associate clerk in 2008 and became deputy clerk in 2011. Prior to her service with the court, Gianunzio worked for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in Marquette, KS, and the Bethany College Advancement Office in Lindsborg, KS. She has a bachelor's degree in accounting, management and finance with a minor in computer application from Bethany College in Lindsborg, KS.

This is only the fourth appointment to the position of Clerk of the Workers' Compensation Court since the court was established in 1935. Gianunzio's predecessors were Barb Frank from 2006 to 2014, Kay Peterson from 1964 to 2005 and Fern Anthony from 1937 to 1964. The court's first judges, the Hon. Lawrence Welch, the Hon. Franklin Coffey and the Hon. Charles Jackman, served without a clerk in the two years prior to Anthony's appointment.
