

Judge Kube Selected For Leadership Program

Antelope County District Court Judge James Kube has been selected for the Nebraska Supreme Court Judicial Leadership Program.

Nebraska state trial court judges with two to seven years experience are eligible for the program, a hands-on leadership project that prepares judges to assume a leadership role in the judicial branch. Throughout the program, judges discuss current trends and develop tools to respond to arising issues.

Kube joins 14 judges from across Nebraska in the project.