

Judge chosen for court for Buffalo, Hall Counties

LINCOLN — Gov. Dave Heineman has appointed Kearney native John P. Rademacher, 43, as a county court judge in the 9th Judicial District, which consists of Buffalo and Hall Counties.

Rademacher has been an attorney and partner in the Law Office of Tye & Rademacher in Kearney since 1996. He was deputy public defender in the Buffalo County Public Defender's Office from 1996 to 2005.

He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska College of Law.

The judgeship was vacated in January when Judge Graten Beavers retired.

— World-Herald News Service