

Nebraska's Deb Minardi Vice President of American Probation and Parole Association

Deb Minardi (right) is sworn-in as Vice President of the American Probation and Parole Association (APPA)

Deb Minardi, Nebraska State Deputy Probation Administrator, was sworn in as Vice President of the American Probation and Parole Association (APPA) on July 15, 2015 during the APPA Annual Training Institute in Los Angeles, California.

As a volunteer on the national board, Minardi takes time from an extremely challenging work schedule to serve as a representative of the over 80,000 men and women who work in community corrections.

Congratulations to Deb Minardi for her dedication and service to the field.
