The new Judicial Branch Education Training Center, 5001 Central Park Drive (between "R" and "O" Streets on 50th) in Lincoln, hosted its first events on October 19, 2015. Thirty probation officers and instructors christened the building with two sessions of new probation officer training.

The opening of the facility allows Judicial Branch Education to provide training in its own offices and forego the use of hotel training space. The building allows up to four training sessions to occur simultaneously. Each room is fully-equipped with computers, screens, sound systems and marker boards.

Judicial Branch Education administrative offices and Court Improvement Project offices will also be housed within the new facility. Mail should be sent to: 5001 Central Park Dr. Ste 200, Lincoln, NE 68504.
